

SECTION - III

Therapies Healing upto body, prana and mind level :

(1) Tissue Remedies : This therapy is nearer to Homoeopathy and is based on the principle of deficiency of twelve salts in human cells. These salts are prepared in potencies ranging from 3x to 200x. Besides single prescription these are also used in twenty eight combinations. This is normally known as a branch of Homoeopathy.

(2) Batch Flower Remedies : This therapy is also nearer to homoeopathy. The remedies are prepared from specific flowers. The mental symptoms have been recorded by proving the remedies as is done in Homoeopathy. There are thirty nine remedies in this therapy. It penetrates upto mental level. But the field of this therapy is not that wide and wholesome as of Homoeopathy.

(3) Psychotherapy and Counseling : Some patients suffer from suspicion, fears and varieties of delusions. The Psychiatrists give counseling during number of sittings with the patient and also prescribe some allopathic drugs to counter such abnormal behaviour. In fact such perverted behaviour is associated with some physical ailment, which is ignored.

(4) Aroma Therapy : The varieties of scents and oils are used to get relief from mental fatigue and Insomnia.
